Manager's Corner –

DECEMBER 2023

Charla Galbraith, CMCA, AMS PCAM®

The Association has removed and replaced approximately 55 palm trees throughout the park. We're happy to say that the Harmony Way fence project is finally complete. After flushing the well at the south end of Harmony, it has been determined that does not have sand coming out with the water. Affordable Well Drilling will be putting the pump and piping back in the ground, and this well will be up and running. Since sand keeps coming out with the well water on the Veterans Way well, the Association will need to consider drilling a new well.

Hope everyone had a nice Thanksgiving. It's hard to believe Christmas is right around the corner and then 2024. Oh my goodness!

For Sale as of the printing of this edition:

Wednesday Golf is Back!

Starting November 1st, our Wednesday morning golf will start up, again at Silver Dollar Golf and Trap Club, 12711 Silver Dollar Drive, Odessa. Wednesday golf is for anyone who wishes to get out to meet their neighbors, for couples, singles, men and/or women, proficient and not-so proficient alike. It's a fun "league", an effort will be made to mix up the foursomes, and periodically there will be fun ways of scoring. Towards the end of the winter season, a tournament will be held for those who participate regularly at Silver Dollar in the Wednesday golf program.

For those who wish to do the 9 holes, start time is at 9:30 am and will be $22 with a cart.

For those who wish to do the 18 holes, start time is at 8:00 am and will be $29 with a cart. Then join your fellow golfers for a cold drink, a good gab and lunch in their excellent clubhouse restaurant.

Contact vikkizulpo@gmail.com if you wish to participate. Vikki and John Zulpo at 66 Rachel will be looking after the Wednesday golf, however we won't be in residence until mid-November. If you are in Tarpon earlier than that and wish to get out, starting November 1st, those rates are available to us. Please be sure to say that you are from Tarpon Shores Mobile Home Park to get those rates.

See you on the course soon!

Chuckles

A Girl Potato and a Boy Potato had eyes for each other, and finally, they got married and had a little sweet potato, which they called 'Yam'.

Of course, they wanted the best for Yam.

When it was time, they told her about the facts of life.

They warned her about going out and getting half-baked, so she wouldn't get accidentally mashed, and get a bad name for herself like 'Hot Potato,' and end up with a bunch of Tater Tots.

Yam said not to worry, no Spud would get her into the sack and make a rotten potato out of her!

But on the other hand, she wouldn't stay home and become a Couch Potato either.

She would get plenty of exercise so as not to be skinny like her Shoestring Cousins.

When she went off to Europe, Mr. and Mrs. Potato told Yam to watch out for the hard-boiled guys from Ireland.

And the greasy guys from France called the French Fries.

And when she went out West, to watch out for the Indians so she wouldn't get scalloped.

Yam said she would stay on the straight and narrow and wouldn't associate with those high-class Yukon Golds, or the ones from the other side of the tracks who advertise their trade on all the trucks that say, 'Frito Lay.'

Mr. and Mrs. Potato sent Yam to Idaho P.U. (that's Potato University) so that when she graduated she'd really be in the Chips.

But in spite of all they did for her, one day Yam came home and announced she was going to marry Tom Brokaw.

Tom Brokaw!

Mr. and Mrs. Potato were very upset.

They told Yam she couldn't possibly marry Tom Brokaw Because he's just..... Are you ready for this? OK! Here it is!

OH, GET LOST

Playing as a single, Maurice is preparing to hit his first tee shot. A man in a cheap suit and a name tag reading "Gil" rushes up. "Excuse me sir!" Gil exclaims as Maurice stops mid-backswing. "Don't hit before you see this amazing golf ball!"

"Fine," Maurice says, clearly annoyed. "But make it quick."

"Thank you sir," Gil says. "You see this golf ball is impossible to lose."

"You are kidding right?" Maurice scoffs. "What if you hit into a water hazard?"

"Actually, the ball floats," Gil responds proudly. "Plus it senses the shore and spins towards dry land."

Maurice, still skeptical, says, "OK, what if it goes into the woods?"

"No problem," Gil answers. "The ball beeps, so you find it right away."

"Pretty cool" Maurice admits. "But what if it gets dark while you're playing?"

Gil replies triumphantly, "it also glows in the dark! I told you, this ball is impossible to lose."

"Well, I'll be darned," Maurice says, finally impressed. "May I ask where you got it?"

"Yeah, see, the thing about that is," Gil stammers, "I found it."

Keep Your Fork!

There was a young woman who had been diagnosed with a terminal illness and had been given three months to live. So, as she was getting her things 'in order,' she contacted her Pastor and had him come to her house to discuss certain aspects of her final wishes.

She told him which songs she wanted sung at the service, what scriptures she would like read, and what outfit she wanted to be buried in. Everything was in order and the Pastor was preparing to leave when the young woman suddenly remembered something very important to her.

'There's one more thing,' she said excitedly.

'What's that?' came the Pastor's reply.

'This is very important,' the young woman continued. 'I want to be buried with a fork in my right hand.'

The Pastor stood looking at the young woman, not knowing quite what to say.

'That surprises you, doesn't it?' the young woman asked.

'Well, to be honest, I'm puzzled by the request,' said the Pastor.

The young woman explained. 'My grandmother once told me this story, and from that time on I have always tried to pass along its message to those I love and those who are in need of encouragement. In all my years of attending socials and dinners, I always remember that when the dishes of the main course were being cleared, someone would inevitably lean over and say, 'Keep your fork.' It was my favorite part because I knew that something better was coming, like velvety chocolate cake or deep-dish apple pie. Something wonderful, and with substance!'

'So, I just want people to see me there in that casket with a fork in my hand and I want them to wonder, 'What's with the fork?'' Then I want you to tell them: 'Keep your fork. The best is yet to come.'

The Pastor's eyes welled up with tears of joy as he hugged the young woman goodbye. He knew this would be one of the last times he would see her before her death. But he also knew that the young woman had a better grasp of heaven than he did. She had a better grasp of what heaven would be like than many people twice her age, with twice as much experience and knowledge. She KNEW that something better was coming.

At the funeral people were walking by the young woman's casket and they saw the cloak she was wearing and the fork placed in her right hand. Over and over, the Pastor heard the question, 'What's with the fork?' And over and over again he smiled.

During his message, the Pastor told the people of the conversation he had with the young woman shortly before she died. He also told them about the fork and about what it symbolized to her. He told the people how he could not stop thinking about the fork and told them they probably would not be able to stop thinking about it either. He was right.

So the next time you reach down for your fork let it remind you, ever so gently, that the best is yet to come. Friends are a very rare jewel, indeed. They make you smile and encourage you to succeed. Cherish the time you have, and the memories you share. Being friends with someone is not an opportunity, but a sweet responsibility.

And just remember...keep your fork!

The BEST is yet to come!"
